Some time since I also had an inquiry from one who desired to make a contribution to the Poe Memorial. Those associated with the association with whom I consulted stated that the active secretary of the association had left the State a long time ago, and that a reorganization would probably be effected. With both active officers now out, it is to be hoped that whoever has authority in the matter will make some effort for reorganization.

To the Editor of The Times-Dispatch:
Sir,—In the preparation of the new edition of the "Complete Works of Edgar Allan Poe" (Growell's). I found, in one of Poe's critiques, the following passage, which should be of interest to Virginians, and to Richmonders in particular:
"In his (Murray's) delineations of Virginian habitudes and manners—a theme often attempted, but seldom twith success—he has been particularly trithful. Virginians will recognize his sketchy picture as far more life.

Chatham, Va., April 3.—During the month of March 151 taxable deeds were admitted to record in the county clerk's office of Pittsylvania county, which is the largest number for one month in the memory of the present clerk, One of the deeds was of $55,000 consideration and another contained 10,000 words. During the corresponding menth of last year 113 were recorded. After two weeks' continuous session and the ordering of a special term to dispose of the unfinished business, the regular March term of Pittsylvania county Circuit Court adjourned Saturday, having disposed of several important cases. The longest term case was that of C. S. Hite, for criminal assault, he being sentenced to twenty years in the penitentiary. The case against Dudley Smith for killing Ed. Powell was five days in trial. At one time it looked very ugly for Smith, but resulted in a case of assault and buttery. He was fined $200.

S. H. Wood, for malicious cutting, was fined $5 in two cases. Thomas Brumfield, for burning a stable, was acquitted; Charles Dewberry, for malicious shooting, resulting in the death of an aged negro, was acquitted; Loyd and Hugh Giles, for shooting at train, were acquitted; Ed Richardson, colored, for house-breaking, one year in the penitentiary.
